MELANIE'S FAB FINDS

Hi i'm Melanie, a London based freelance writer and mother with 2 lovely little girls and a cute little boy who enjoy helping me with my work ages 1.5, 6 and 7.5. I enjoy trialing products and writing all about them but please do be aware that I give my honest opinion and as I only write about nice things so only items that I like will get onto the blog.

Follow links will be live for a maximum of 3 months. If you need it extended please get in contact. I will assume you have seen this when you get in contact.

Reviews can take 2-3 weeks, sometimes more if it is a beauty product.

I am in some cases gifted products for review, it does NOT mean I am being paid for the post and the opinions expressed are my own and sometimes the children's too. All product sent are for review consideration and if the product does not reach good quality standards it will NOT feature on my blog. Affiliate links may sometime be included in posts.
